R.P.D. OFFICER BENEFITS

SALARY

Starting pay for a Raleigh Police Officer is $34,281.59 up to $52,793.64 depending upon experience. Direct Deposit of pay checks is available.

LONGEVITY PAY

After five years of service, each officer receives 1% of his or her annual salary in an extra check during December. Employees with ten years of service receive 2% of their annual salary. This payment, known as a longevity bonus, is approved on a yearly basis by the Raleigh City Council.

PROMOTION

Officers are promoted on a merit basis after evaluation of their work performance record and applicable examinations.

UNIFORMS AND EQUIPMENT

An officer's complete uniform, shoes, weapon, and all necessary equipment are furnished by the City. Items are periodically replaced as the need arises.

EDUCATION PROGRAMS

All Officers must successfully complete our basic academy training. The Raleigh Police Academy lasts for approximately 27 weeks and consists of intensive training in the fundamentals of law enforcement. Upon graduation from the Academy and completion of 12 months of probation, an officer may attend other educational institutions of higher training. The City will reimburse the officer up to $2,000.00 per fiscal year for tuition and books. In addition, selected officers are sent periodically to out-of-house schools.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE & A.S.L. INCENTIVE PAY PROGRAM

Raleigh Officers who are proficient in Spanish and/or American Sign Language are eligible to receive a one time incentive payment each year of $500.00. All interested employees are required to be tested and certified as an interpreter or translator by approved, certified examiners. Candidates will be re-examined every three years. This is a voluntary program.

HOURS

Raleigh Officers currently work 12 hour shifts, and spend one month on either day or night rotation. Officers work two weekends out of the month. A sample 28-day cycle, beginning on a Monday, looks like this: two on, two off, three on, two off, two on, three off.

VACATION

Vacation is earned at the rate of one day per month for the first 3 years of employment. Completion of six months service is required before vacation leave will be granted. After 3 years of employment service, 15 days of vacation are earned per year. After 10 years, 18 days of vacation are earned per year. After 15 years, 21 days of vacation are earned per year. After 20 years, 24 days of vacation are earned per year. An Officer may allow this leave to accrue to 50 days.

SICK LEAVE

Sick leave is earned at the rate of 1 day per month. In addition to this, after 8 years of employment 3 months extended sick leave is earned, after 15 years another 3 months sick leave is earned, and after 25 years you earn 6 additional months for a total of 12 months.

PETTY LEAVE

Officers are granted 12 hours of petty leave per year. Petty leave can be used for attending to personal matters which usually cannot be transacted outside of office hours, such as medical appointments, etc., not to exceed 2 hours in one day.

HOLIDAYS

There are 11 paid holidays per year that are determined by the City Council. The holidays are New Year's Day, Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, Good Friday, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Veterans Day, Thanksgiving (2 days) and Christmas (2 days).

MEDICAL COVERAGE

Medical coverage for employees is paid by the City of Raleigh. The coverage is effective the first of the month following one calendar month of continuous employment. The types of coverage available are individual (for employee only), parent/child, and family. Employees may choose Blue Care (Health Maintenance Organization) or Blue Option (Preferred Provider Organization Plan). Premiums for all plans are the same and are paid through payroll deduction on a pre-tax basis.

DENTAL COVERAGE

Dental coverage for employees is paid by the City of Raleigh. Coverage for new employees will become effective the same date as health coverage. Premiums for parent/child and family coverage are paid through payroll deduction on a pretax basis.

LIFE INSURANCE

All permanent employees are provided basic life insurance and accidental death and dismemberment insurance in an amount equal to their annual salary. The coverage is effective the first of the month following one calendar month of employment. Premiums are paid by the City of Raleigh. Employees may purchase coverage through payroll deduction for their dependents in the amount of $2,500 for $.70 bi-weekly or $.35 weekly. Voluntary term life insurance is also available through payroll deduction.

REIMBURSEMENT ACCOUNTS

The City of Raleigh has established medical and dependent care reimbursement accounts so that employees may pay for out-of-pocket medical and/or dependent care expenses on a pre-tax basis.

SAVINGS BONDS

The City of Raleigh offers the purchase of savings bonds through payroll deduction.

CREDIT UNION

The City of Raleigh Credit Union is available to all permanent employees. Permanent employees must complete 6 months of continuous employment and be a Credit Union member before becoming eligible to obtain a loan. In order to retain membership in the Credit Union, employees must have a minimum of $25 on deposit. Savings accounts and loans are insured in the event of the employee's death.

RETIREMENT

All permanent employees are covered under the North Carolina Local Governmental Employees' Retirement System (NCLGERS). The employee contributes 6% of his annual salary on a tax deferred basis. The City matches the employee's payment to their retirement accounts. Officers are eligible for unreduced monthly benefits upon retiring after 30 years of service at any age, or at age 55 with 5 years of service. Officers are also eligible to retire with reduced benefits at age 50 after completing 15 years of service.

SUPPLEMENTAL RETIREMENT PLANS

All Law Enforcement Officers may participate in the Supplemental Retirement Income Plan of North Carolina 401 (K) Plan. Participation is voluntary and officers may make tax deferred contributions up to a maximum level as provided by IRS regulations. The City's contribution is 5%.

DEFERRED COMPENSATION

The City has developed and administers a deferred compensation program in addition to the supplemental retirement plans. This program is voluntary and allows employees to set aside income through payroll deduction that is tax deferred. Income tax is due when the deferred earnings are returned to the individual normally at retirement.

SOCIAL SECURITY

The City employees are members of the Social Security System. The employee contributes 7.65% of their annual salary and the City contributes the same amount. Social Security benefits include retirement and disability payments and survivor's insurance.

EMPLOYEE HEALTH & WELLNESS CENTER

The purpose of the Health Center is to treat job related injuries and illnesses that occur while employees are at work. All police applicants are required to have pre-employment physicals and drug screenings. Periodic health screenings that include vision, hearing, and blood pressure screening are also provided.

EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The City of Raleigh provides employees and family members with confidential counseling to help resolve problems that may affect their work or family life.

WORKER'S COMPENSATION

All City employees are covered under the North Carolina Worker's Compensation Act. This act covers those employees who suffer injuries as a result of an accident while performing duties. It will pay medical expenses and a portion of the employee's salary if the individual is out of work as a result of a work related disability.

DISABILITY INCOME PLAN

All permanent employees are eligible to enroll in this voluntary payroll deducted plan which provides employees up to 60% of income if unable to work due to off-the-job accident, illness, or pregnancy.

Note: All employee benefit programs are subject to change. Approval for continuation each fiscal year is contingent on budget authorization.
